

*A refuge of calm,
peace & seclusion*

WESTBURY, TASMANIA

COMPENDIUM

Welcome to Quamby Home,

Your Oasis of peace, a refuge of calm, free from distraction.

We hope you have a great stay on the farm and enjoy the relaxing surrounds of the meander valley and the northern Midlands. Our little corner of paradise sits in an English-like corner of the state unlike any other farming area in Tasmania. It offers cobbled fencing, hawthorn hedges and rolling green pastures much like that of an English storybook.

We are thrilled to share our carefully curated luxury farm stay with you.

Quamby Home is a working cropping and livestock property so feel free to walk around the property but please ensure all gates are securely closed after you pass through. It is also worth noting that some of the crops grown on Quamby Home, such as opium poppies, are restricted from access by the public. These paddocks are clearly marked with a no trespassing signs on the fence. Other crops we grow are potatoes, carrots, peas and other grass seed varieties. From time to time we also have livestock on the property, so we thank you for respecting the tranquility of the farm to ensure a peaceful environment for our animals.

Pure in its authenticity, Quamby Home is a space for families and groups to enjoy in every way. Wide open spaces, green landscapes and raw materials. Old meets new in the renovated late 1800's cottage bringing life back into what once was a rustic farm home.

Quamby Home is truly unique and arguably one of the only working farms in Tasmania that offers chic accommodation and a chance to enjoy everyday farm life. Quamby Home offers a restorative stay and one that you and your family will never forget. From star gazing, vegetable picking, outdoor firepits and authentic earthing days with family.

Sincerely,
THE QH TEAM

Thank you for visiting us at Quamby Home and we hope you enjoy your stay and enjoy the great things that northern Tasmania has to offer. We would greatly appreciate it if you could write a comment in the visitors book, like us or tag us on Socials. #quambyhometasmania

THE SPACE

HEATING & COOLING

The fireplace is set and ready for you to enjoy. There should be enough wood stacked by the fire for your stay. However, if you need more, please help yourself to the northern end of the large corrugated iron shed outside to the back of the house. When starting the fire make sure you keep it contained and watch with a careful eye to ensure the fire does not go outside the fireplace. Once it's going, start to add smaller pieces of wood and allow the coals to build up before adding larger logs.

Ducted heating and cooling is also available for your stay. The wall mounted control panel is opposite the bookcase in the dining area. We recommend keeping it set to 22 degrees. Please ensure to turn it off before you leave the house.

Select the temperature using the large left/right arrows on RHS selector button. Then press the On/Off button. It will light up green when the system is operating. Please ensure you have selected heat or cool depending on the season. The system will automatically turn off when the desired temperature has been reached. Please note the fireplace should only be used if you know how to operate one, otherwise use the ducted heating.

There is floor heating in the bathrooms and this is left on throughout the year. You can adjust the temperature on the touch screen. It will automatically heat until the desired temperature is reached.

BLUETOOTH SPEAKER

We have a small but powerful Bang & Olufsen Bluetooth speaker available for your enjoyment. To connect, turn the speaker on, press the Bluetooth button and search for it on your device.
